Showcase

In addition to the three performances at Buckland Abbey, a part of the production will be given at the Hall for Cornwall in Truro on 19 June, as part of a Showcase with other productions in the RSC Open Stages project. And it has very recently been announced that one of the companies in the Showcase will be selected to give their full performance at the RSC's Theatre in Stratford-upon-Avon in July. Selection will be based not just on quality but on how the production fits with other productions in the theatre.

Keep your fingers crossed for us!

Please help distribute posters and flyers

We need everyone to help get posters and flyers distributed. You can print a poster from the website, or we can let you have as many printed copies as you can use. Please put them in your local shops, pubs, tearooms; on village noticeboards and anywhere else you can think of.
